Why is SSBG important to Montana?

Protective Service for Adults

Domestic, dating, and sexual violence are costly and pervasive problems in the U.S., causing victims, as well as witnesses and bystanders, in every community to suffer incalculable pain and loss.

15.5 million Children in the United States live in families in which partner violence occurred at least once in the past year, and seven million children live in families in which severe partner violence occurred.

2,888 adults were the recipient of services in Montana.

Special Services for Disabled Individuals

Special Services for Person with Developmental or Physical Disabilities, or Persons with Visual or Auditory Impairments are services or activities to maximize the potential of persons with disabilities; help alleviate the effects of physical, mental, or emotional disabilities; and to enable these persons to live in the least restrictive environment possible.

SSBG allowed Montana to provide special services for the disabled to 6,000 people including 3,100 children.
