Facts about SSBG Virginia

Protective Services for Children

In 2017, there were 6,277 victims of child maltreatment, a 7.1% increase from 5,863 in 2013. Virginia has over 76,000 total referrals of child maltreatment in 2017. 32,754 of those referrals were reported for investigation.

Over 49,800 children will receive child protective services as a result of SSBG funds. In addition, nearly 700 children and 2,200 adults will receive prevention services.

Foster Care and Adoption Services

In 2017, 4,795 children in Virginia lived apart from their families in out-of-home care, compared with 4,890 children in 2016. 801 were legally adopted through a public child welfare agency.

SSBG will provide foster care services for 5,186 children and adoption services for 1,568 children.

Case Management

Virginia provides a statewide system of prevention, protective services, assessment, and case management for incapacitated individuals 18 years or older. SSBG FY 2016 funding provided services to over 40,000 adults.
