Don't Miss Friday, April 23,
it's National Children's Memorial Flag Day!

Show Your Support. Fly our Flag.

CWLA's Children's Memorial Flag was created in honor of April's National Child Abuse Prevention Month. Flown on the fourth Friday in April, the Children's Memorial Flag honors each lost child, and serves as a symbol for the protection of children and young people from all forms of violence. The flag raises public awareness about the continuing problem of violence against children. Please join CWLA's efforts to make children a national priority, by helping to make every day a peaceful, healthy day for America's children.

The CWLA Children's Memorial Flag Initiative

The centerpiece is simple. A red flag depicting blue, paper-doll-like figures of children holding hands. In the center, the white chalk outline of a missing child symbolizes the children lost to violence. Created by a 16-year-old student in Alameda County, California, and flown on the fourth Friday in April, the Children's Memorial Flag honors each lost child and raises public awareness about the continuing problem of violence against children.

Join the nearly 300 organizations, in over 100 cities, and participants in all 50 states that support Children's Memorial Flag Day. Fly your flag on the fourth Friday in April—or all month long—and support CWLA's efforts to protect every child from violence and harm.
