Child Welfare

Journal of Policy, Practice, and Program

More than 10,000 child welfare professionals read each issue of Child Welfare Journal for fresh approaches to problem-solving and proven, practical ideas that work. They get comprehensive coverage of the latest research, practice issues, program developments, and more—all vital for informed, thoughtful decisionmaking. Each peer-reviewed issue puts you in touch with traditional child welfare experts, as well as those in related fields: pediatricians, nurses, elementary and secondary school staffs, academics, researchers, and more. Published by the Child Welfare League of America since 1922, Child Welfare is the oldest, most trusted industry journal.
